

Engrossing Session on Networking

The Soundarya Composite College students had engrossing session on Networking, as it is crucial for commerce students it opens doors to opportunities, provides industry insights, fosters professional relationships, and can lead to internships, job offers, and mentorship. It helps students stay updated with market trends, build a support system, and enhance their career prospects.

The session was modulated by our Alumni Deepika of 2019 batch..

