

Kautilya-the commerce forum presents -Data driven Statistical analysis.

The Statistics students of Soundarya Composite PU College delved into data-driven projects, selecting topics of personal interest to collect, analyze, and interpret data. Through comprehensive statistical analysis and graphical representation, they honed essential skills in data interpretation, visualization, and effective communication — showcasing their analytical aptitude and academic curiosity.

